New Lexington Head Start

Center News

Spring is finally here! The classrooms are excited to finally be able to change pace jump into spring activities. With April arriving, the classrooms will be as busy learning about Flowers, butterflies, rainbows and more! The teachers have plans to have new and exciting experiences for your children. Look for reminders to be sent home. Also, we would love to have your participation on Party Day. Keep an eye out for details that will be sent home about party day!

Our kindergarten bound kiddos will have a field trip coming up soon! They will have the opportunity to see a classroom, cafeteria, and library at New Lexington Elementary School. Watch for updates on this trip!

Reminder: We have has a lot of illness going around the center. If your child is sick, please keep them home to avoid spreading illness to other children in your child's classroom and center staff. If you have any questions, please call us at the center.

Home Based/Early Head Start

The Home Based and Early Head Start programs are also jumping into spring activities. Our teachers have some fun and educational activities planned with all of our families. On April 5th we'll be having our Easter celebration for HB/EHS families during socialization. We hope you all will be able to join us there! 😊

Did you know? There are many ways to use the home as a learning tool. Here's some examples of everyday materials that can be used at home to support learning:

- Boxes to serve as blocks (shoe boxes, tissue boxes, etc.)
- Clean, empty laundry detergent tops or yogurt containers make excellent toys for stacking and nesting
- Empty egg cartons, cardboard food boxes, muffin tins, etc. provide opportunities to explore one-to-one correspondence and pretend play, like shopping or cooking

Happy Birthday!
